

How can we live and work with purpose and authenticity?

The Art of Participatory Leadership is a 3-day residential training on beautiful Coochiemudlo Island, an hour south of Brisbane in Moreton Bay.

The training offers simple and powerful participatory models, processes and practices to work with complexity, uncertainty and change.

If you're searching for ways to live and work purposefully and authentically, and in deep collaboration with others, you are warmly invited to join us.

Wednesday 9 to Friday 11 September 2015

What will we explore, learn & practice?

- The Art of Hosting Conversations That Matter as a core leadership framework, practice and skill set.
- Simple and powerful social tools such as: Circle, World Café, Appreciative Inquiry, Open Space Technology, ProAction Café, Designing for Wiser Action, storytelling and more.
- Complementary models and frameworks including complexity theory and practice, and self-managed organisations
- Real world application

Your hosting team

Your hosts are a diverse team of Art of Hosting practitioners - emerging, and experienced - from all walks of life.

Who is it for?

People who want to explore the power of collective creativity, social intelligence, and collaboration in work and community.

We look forward to welcoming you, your questions, your projects and your contributions.
